

Brother Randy, I was hoping to just jump into the area of casting out the other demon spirits, some who are really dangerous and sometimes hard to get rid of, but now I'm led to first talk about cultic practices, altars, music etc. These are things that, most times, are "open doorways" and welcoming signs for unwanted intruders.

Altars.

Before attempting to minister deliverance, the area where it will be done must be clear of all cultic altars. In Peter's case, it was impossible to minister in his parents' home, as there were altars all over that house, mostly paintings by an old catholic priest, portraying the mother and child cult. All these paintings were done in a grotesque style, like 4 and 5 year olds would do, but not with the sweetness of an innocent child. No, all the evil of semiramus and her illegitimate son, tammuz, seemed to emanate from these paintings, note that semiramus and ishtar are the same idol.

Jer 7:17 Seest thou not what they do in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem?

Jer 7:18 The children gather wood, and the fathers kindle the fire, and the women knead their dough, to make cakes to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto other gods, that they may provoke me to anger.

Jer 7:19 Do they provoke me to anger? saith the LORD: do they not provoke themselves to the confusion of their own faces?

Jer 7:20 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, mine anger and my fury shall be poured out upon this place, upon man, and upon beast, and upon the trees of the field, and upon the fruit of the ground; and it shall burn, and shall not be quenched.

Eze 8:12 Then said he unto me, Son of man, hast thou seen what the ancients of the house of Israel do in the dark, every man in the chambers of his imagery? for they say, The LORD seeth us not; the LORD hath forsaken the earth.

Eze 8:13 He said also unto me, Turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations that they do.

Eze 8:14 Then he brought me to the door of the gate of the LORD'S house which was toward the north; and, behold, there sat women weeping for Tammuz.

Eze 8:15 Then said he unto me, Hast thou seen this, O son of man? turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations than these.

Brother, let me give you a testimony, from a little girl's father personally. They were in a cultic church where most are very fond of having or wearing jewellery of so-called "saints" or "mother and child" statuettes. I'll call the father "Pat", the little girl "Anne", and the mother "Sue". Not their real names, to protect their privacy.

Little Anne, very sick, had an organ transplant but after six or seven weeks, her body started rejecting it. Not having a personal relationship with our LORD JESUS CHRIST, they had to accept that little Anne was terminally ill and only had a few weeks to live, but JESUS had other plans for this sweet innocent child.

Coming from a different city than the one, where the transplant operation took place and, not having sufficient funds for hotel accommodation, they stayed at the "WXYZ", a municipal supported facility, close to the hospital. One parent would stay at Anne's bedside, while the other would go rest a while at the WXYZ. Pat told me there was a Gideon's Bible on the bedside cabinet. He had never read a Bible in his life, neither had his wife, both of them having grown up in the same "church".

One day they decided to take Anne for a walk in a nearby park. There they recognized a young nurse, sitting on a bench, reading her Bible. They asked her for directions to a coffee shop and, using wisdom, she directed them to a church sister's coffee shop. Arriving there, Pat told me he immediately thought there was something very different about that coffee shop. The atmosphere was very warm and peaceful, the waiters very friendly, the walls covered with Bible verses and scenes from The HOLY Land.

One of the waitresses said to Pat that she recognized little Anne from newspaper articles and photos, and if they would mind if she gets some of her friends to pray for her.

His wife immediately asked the waitress whether they were from a "happy clappy" church and she acknowledged. When she heard this, Sue immediately refused, quite vehemently, saying that their priest had already prayed for Anne and that was enough. If Anne was not healed, it was GOD's will and they would not accept prayers for Anne from the sects. Then Pat intervened and said to Sue that there was nothing to loose and, very reluctantly, she agreed, but said: "I know you are people who speak in tongues, I will not allow that. If I hear "funny language" coming from any of you, I will just walk out with Anne". The waitress agreed, left the table and, after a couple of minutes, returned with 4 prayer warriors. One of them was a very big fellow with long hair and a beard and Pat said he looked a bit familiar, but just could not place him at the moment.

They started praying and, after a while, Pat and Sue both heard someone speaking in a "strange language". Looking at the 5 praying for Anne, they noticed that all of them were praying in our home language, Afrikaans. Then Pat looked at Anne in the wheel chair and saw her, arms lifted up and, on top of her voice, was speaking in tongues, as The SPIRIT gave the utterance. After a little while, Anne got up and said: "Praise The LORD, I am healed".

Cutting a long story short, she was examined and declared: "HEALED by a MIRACLE". They just wanted to keep her a few days longer to do some tests, Pat and Sue agreed and they decided, like before, to keep a bedside vigil.

Suddenly, after 4 days, Anne became ill again, the doctors said that the cure was just psychological and the whole depressing situation started all over again. The next day, Pat was at the WXYZ, trying to get some rest, when he noticed the Gideon's Bible again. Out of curiosity, more than anything else, he picked up the Bible and opened it. It opened at Psalm 40

Psa 40:1 To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David. I waited patiently for the LORD; and he inclined unto me, and heard my cry.

Psa 40:2 He brought me up also out of an horrible pit, out of the miry clay, and set my feet upon a rock, and established my goings.

Psa 40:3 And he hath put a new song in my mouth, even praise unto our God: many shall see it, and fear, and shall trust in the LORD.

Psa 40:4 Blessed is that man that maketh the LORD his trust, and respecteth not the proud, nor such as turn aside to lies.

Just then, the phone rang, and fearing the worst, he picked it up. "Good afternoon mr. Pat. I am so and so from "out of town". We are a group of ladies who pray for Anne every day and today we got very disturbing news from The LORD. HE said HE cannot answer our prayers as someone had built a wall between HIM and Anne. Go and remove it immediately or Anne would die".

Pat raced to the hospital as fast as he could and, as he ran into the reception area, a doctor was just coming out the door and Pat recognised him as the fellow with the beard and long hair at the coffee shop. He told him what happened and the two of them hurried to Anne's ward. The doctor immediately opened the bedside cabinet drawer and found a "mary and child" statuette inside. Apparently, Sue's sister visited Anne and put the idol in there: "just for luck and protection".

The doctor threw this idol down on the floor, picked up the pieces and threw it in the waste bin. Anne opened her eyes and said: "Daddy, I was in a deep, muddy pit and I saw you bending over and reaching down, you took me up in your hands".

They left the hospital the next morning, and after having the coffee shop team pray with them, they went to their hometown. Three weeks later I met Pat and he gave me this wonderful testimony and told me his whole house was now saved and serving The LORD at a local, Bible believing church. Praise GOD!!!

You see brother, this abomination, semiramus and tammuz are found in many religions and cultures.

This was the "open doorway" that led in the demons who stole Anne's healing, and built the wall between The LORD and the intercessors.

Catholicism is absolutely steeped in idolatry, so it is essential that the arena, where the battle for the young man's soul is to take place, is totally free from any catholic or other cultic relics.

It might be quite an uphill battle for you, if the young man grew up catholic brother. I would not attempt casting out demons, unless prompted by The HOLY GHOST, before getting the young man to surrender his life to JESUS, The REAL JESUS of The Bible and not tammuz.

There are other jesus personalities too.

The Jehova's witnesses and shockingly, present day 7th Day Adventists have a different jesus, the archangel Michael, a generated being, while The Bible says, John 1/1 to 29:

Joh 1:1 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

Joh 1:2 The same was in the beginning with God.

Joh 1:3 All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made.

Joh 1:4 In him was life; and the life was the light of men.

Joh 1:5 And the light shineth in darkness; and the darkness comprehended it not.

Joh 1:6 There was a man sent from God, whose name was John.

Joh 1:7 The same came for a witness, to bear witness of the Light, that all men through him might believe.

Joh 1:8 He was not that Light, but was sent to bear witness of that Light.

Joh 1:9 That was the true Light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world.

Joh 1:10 He was in the world, and the world was made by him, and the world knew him not.

Joh 1:11 He came unto his own, and his own received him not.

Joh 1:12 But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name:

Joh 1:13 Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.

Joh 1:14 And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth.

Joh 1:15 John bare witness of him, and cried, saying, This was he of whom I spake, He that cometh after me is preferred before me: for he was before me.

Joh 1:16 And of his fulness have all we received, and grace for grace.

Joh 1:17 For the law was given by Moses, but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ.

Joh 1:18 No man hath seen God at any time; the only begotten Son, which is in the bosom of the Father, he hath declared him.

Joh 1:19 And this is the record of John, when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, Who art thou?

Joh 1:20 And he confessed, and denied not; but confessed, I am not the Christ.

Joh 1:21 And they asked him, What then? Art thou Elias? And he saith, I am not. Art thou that prophet? And he answered, No.

Joh 1:22 Then said they unto him, Who art thou? that we may give an answer to them that sent us. What sayest thou of thyself?

Joh 1:23 He said, I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the Lord, as said the prophet Esaias.

Joh 1:24 And they which were sent were of the Pharisees.

Joh 1:25 And they asked him, and said unto him, Why baptizest thou then, if thou be not that Christ, nor Elias, neither that prophet?

Joh 1:26 John answered them, saying, I baptize with water: but there standeth one among you, whom ye know not;

Joh 1:27 He it is, who coming after me is preferred before me, whose shoe's latchet I am not worthy to unloose.

Joh 1:28 These things were done in Bethabara beyond Jordan, where John was baptizing.

Joh 1:29 The next day John seeth Jesus coming unto him, and saith, Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world.

JESUS rebuked satan in the dessert, but Michael did not dare to rebuke satan, but asked The LORD to rebuke him. He is not The LORD then.

Mat 4:9 And saith unto him, All these things will I give thee, if thou wilt fall down and worship me.

Mat 4:10 Then saith Jesus unto him, Get thee hence, Satan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve.

Mat 4:11 Then the devil leaveth him, and, behold, angels came and ministered unto him.

Jud 1:9 Yet Michael the archangel, when contending with the devil he disputed about the body of Moses, durst not bring against him a railing accusation, but said, The Lord rebuke thee.

Heb 1:13 But to which of the angels said he at any time, Sit on my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool?

Heb 1:14 Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for them who shall be heirs of salvation?

1Co 3:11 For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ.

2Co 11:3 But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ.

2Co 11:4 For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him.

2Co 11:5 For I suppose I was not a whit behind the very chiefest apostles.

2Co 11:6 But though I be rude in speech, yet not in knowledge; but we have been thoroughly made manifest among you in all things.

Gal 1:8 But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed.

Gal 1:9 As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed.

Here is another testimony to illustrate The LORD's wrath against this mother and child monstrosity.

We were at prayer meeting one Wednesday evening, when suddenly I felt the unction of The HOLY GHOST. The pastor was on the pulpit, very much In The SPIRIT, and saw the anointing on me. Immediately he asked me to come forward and share, with the beloved, that which The LORD had given me.

Now brother Randy, when I got up, I did not know what I was going to say or do, since I had only experienced the anointing but heard nothing. Nevertheless, I got up and even standing behind the pulpit, I still did not know what was going to happen. But now it was walking on water time. So : "Evening beloved. Thus saith The LORD: Sister, GOD saw you hiding the so-called mary/jesus statuette under your clothes in your closet. You will recognise it by this description. It is white and gold and the right arm is broken off. It is NOT the Mary and Jesus of The Bible, it is an abomination of the "queen of heaven and tammuz". We do not pray to idols, we worship The LORD JESUS CHRIST, and HE is not made by human hands.

I shall NOT heal you, even though you pray to ME day and night, says The LORD". With that, I got off from the pulpit and returned to my pew.

No sooner had I sat down, when an elderly lady, in her seventies, stood up crying, turned towards me and said: "I am so sorry, my next door neighbour brought it to me, said that "mary" would intercede for me because I have been sick for along time and cannot seem to get my healing. I realise how stupid I have been and I now ask YOU LORD JESUS to please forgive me. I will return the idol to my neighbour and tell her how it was revealed to you, my brother".

That following Sunday evening service, she got up and demonstrated how she walks without her crutches. Brother, she was completely healed when she got rid of that statuette, praise The LORD!!!

This just proves that The LORD will not move when HE sees catholic or any other idols.

Brother, I know I am taking a very long route to get you to the point of deliverance, but do not despair. After all this, I am giving you a shortened summary, in a "running commentary style", on everything that you have to do to set the young man free, catholic or not. "We can do all things through CHRIST JESUS WHO gives us the necessary strength", Philippians 4/13.

I am just emailing this now, have an appointment with another schizophrenic and I have to separate myself to hear from The LORD. I have to see him tomorrow and must be ready for the confrontation. This one received through inheritance, as both his sisters and mother are schizophrenic. This one is a well known business man and wants to be free. Please pray for me brother and keep well.

I will of course return to writing tomorrow evening.

Here is some more info, just for interest's sake. At the moment I am listening to the wonderful Gospel songs of Jim Reeves on You Yube and I am sooo blessed. I always need the anointing when I am writing. God Bless!

Ishtar

The Columbia Encyclopedia, 6th ed. | 2013 |

Ishtar (Īsh'tār), ancient fertility deity, the most widely worshiped goddess in Babylonian and Assyrian religion. She was worshiped under various names and forms. Most important as a mother goddess and as a goddess of love, Ishtar was the source of all the generative powers in nature and mankind. However, she was also a goddess of war and as such was capable of unremitting cruelty. Her cult spread throughout W Asia, and she became identified with various other earth goddesses (see Great Mother Goddess). One of the most famous of the Babylonian legends related the trials of her descent into the underworld in search of her lover Tammuz and her triumphant return to earth. In Sumerian religion, where her cult probably originated, she was called Inanna.

The Queen Of Heavens that apostate Jews were worshiping during the time of the prophet Jeremiah was likely Astarte. The women back there were baking sacrificial cakes(jeremiah44:15-19)to this goddess

Her counterparts are known as Innana, Ishtar, Isis, Osiris,Isi and Iswara and Cybele She was said to be the wife of Tammuz a pagan god. Tammuz, also called Damuzi was originally a man, a King of Erech, possibly one and the same as Nimrod, (Check Genesis 10:10)

So the Queen of The Heavens was Nimrods wife, but Semiramis was his mother. Nimrod's mother, being the wife of Cush, was a granddaughter of Noah's wife, who survived the great flood, the same as the fishes. Note how the Babylonish pagan religion made use of this fact in deifying Semiramis, making her a goddess,Atargatis.

In his book "The Two Babylons", Alexander Hislop wrote "Easter is nothing else than Ashtarte the Queen of the Heavens, whose name is Ishtar".

Nimrod, the grandson of Ham (one of Noah's sons), was the real instigator of the Babylonian system which has gripped the world ever since he lived. It was a system of organised competition, based on a profit-making economic system. Nimrod built the tower of Babel, ancient Nineveh and other cities. The name 'Nimrod' is Hebrew and derives from 'Marad', meaning 'he rebelled'. Nimrod was so evil that he married his own mother, whose name was Semiramis. After Nimrod's early death, his mother-wife propagated the evil doctrine of the survival of Nimrod as a spirit being. She claimed a full grown evergreen tree sprang overnight from a dead tree stump, which symbolised the springing forth into new life of the dead Nimrod. On each anniversary of his birth, she claimed Nimrod would visit the evergreen tree and leave gifts upon it. December 25th was the birthday of Nimrod: and here we have the real origin of the 'Christmas tree'.

The above is just to show you the evil of the catholic system. More about this in a later "module".
